

These are just 5 facts about Kitties!

A cat has 230 bones in its body.
In multi-pet households, cats are able to get along especially well with dogs if they're introduced when the cat is under 6 months old and the dog is under one year old.
A cat's heart beats nearly twice as fast as a human heart.
Ancient Egyptians first adored cats for their finesse in killing rodents, as far back as 4,000 years ago.
Cats are unable to detect sweetness in anything they taste.
Teeth of cats are sharper when they're kittens. After six months, they lose their needle-sharp milk teeth.